

TRAVEL AND REIMBURSEMENT POLICY

Purpose:

This policy outlines the process for business-related travel, ensuring that employees are reimbursed fairly and the company's travel spending is managed responsibly. It applies to all domestic and international business travel, including conferences, client meetings, training sessions, and other work-related travel.

1. General Guidelines

- Approval Requirement: All business travel must be pre-approved by the traveler's manager and, where applicable, the department head.
- Travel Planning: Business travel should be planned well in advance (preferably 14–21 days) to secure the best rates and minimize last-minute expenses.
- Essential Travel: Only essential travel should be undertaken. Video or teleconferencing should be utilized as much as possible to minimize travel needs.
- Group Travel: If multiple employees are traveling to the same destination, group travel is encouraged to reduce costs.
- Sustainability: Employees are encouraged to choose sustainable travel options when possible (e.g., opting for trains over flights for short distances).

2. Employee Grades

For the purpose of this policy, employees are classified into the following grades:

Grade	Designation Level Example
G1	Senior Leadership (CXOs, VP, Directors, etc.)
G2	Mid Management (AGMs, Sr. Managers, GM etc.)
G3	Junior Management/Executive (Managers, TLs, etc.)

3. Travel Mode Eligibility

All employees are required to opt for economy class travel for official journeys, whether by air, rail, or roadways. Any travel must be undertaken only with the prior approval of the respective Head of Department (HOD).

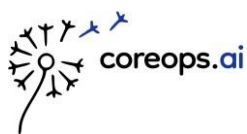

Note:

- Cab fare to/from airport/station is reimbursable on actuals (with receipt).

4. Hotel Accommodation Reimbursement

Grade	Hotel Category	Reimbursement Limit (Per Night)
G1	Business Hotel	₹7,000 + Taxes
G2	Budget Hotel	₹5,000 + Taxes
G3	Budget or Service Hotel	₹3,000 + Taxes

Guidelines:

- All hotel bookings must include breakfast.
- Reimbursement is on production of GST-compliant invoice.
- Personal expenses (minibar, spa, etc.) are not reimbursable.

5. Daily Allowance (in INR)

- A daily food allowance of up to INR 1,500 per person shall be applicable during travel. Reimbursement will be processed against submission of valid bills. In case of group travel, the senior most member will be responsible for managing and settling the expenses.

6. Local Conveyance

- Reimbursable upon submission of actual bills (cab, auto, metro).
- Use of personal vehicle allowed with prior approval @ ₹5/km (bike) and ₹12/km (car), with odometer reading.

7. International Travel Guidelines

Pre-Trip Responsibilities: Employees must:

- Ensure timely submission of necessary documentation (e.g., visas, passport copies).
- Research travel advisories, health and safety recommendations, and relevant local laws.

8. Booking Guidelines

- Travel and hotel bookings should ideally be made through the company's preferred travel partner or portal.
- All bookings must be pre-approved by the Head of the department
- Last-minute travel (within 24 hours) requires business justification.

9. Reimbursement Process

- Submit all claims within 15 working days of completion of travel.

 - Meal and conveyance receipts
 - Approved Travel Request
- Claims submitted after the deadline may not be processed unless justified.

10. Technology and Communication During Travel

Mobile and Data Costs: Business-related phone calls and data usage while traveling internationally will be reimbursed. Employees are encouraged to use Wi-Fi for communication where available.

Laptop and Equipment: Employees are responsible for securing their work-related devices while traveling. Any theft or damage must be reported to the IT department immediately.

11. Non-Reimbursable Expenses

- Alcoholic beverages
- Movie/entertainment charges
- Personal purchases
- Tips and gratuities beyond ₹100/day
- Expenses without bills

12. Special Provisions

Late-Night Travel: Employees traveling between 9 PM and 6 AM should prioritize safety and use taxis or company-approved ride services.

Travel with Dependents: In cases where dependents accompany the employee, the employee is responsible for covering any additional costs for their dependent.
